WU TING FANG GIVEN A BETTER PORTFOLIO.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Wu Ting Fang, former Ambassador to the United States and one of the leading Chinese revolutionists, has been made Minister of Justice of the new Chinese republic. President Sun Yat sen, in organizing his cabinet, appointed Wu Attorney-General, but today elevated him to the higher office, according to a cablegram from Nanking to the Chinese Free Press here.

Yong Chung Wal, who had been named as Wu's assistant, has been appointed Attorney-General.

A Hongkong cable to the Chung Shai Yat Pe here, says that the revolutionary government of Kwang Tung province, with headquarters at the city of Canton, has authorized the issuance of 115,000,000 in paper money. Revolutionary officials have arrived in Hongkong to supervise the printing thereof.

Disarmament of the city ordinance which forbids the discharge of firearms and fireworks even on the Fourth of July, Chief of Police White decided today that a celebration of the establishment of the new Chinese republic is an occasion that calls for police and gave Chinatown a permit to celebrate its independence day next Sunday in the traditional Chinese manner.

A feature will be a parade in "American style." Automobiles have been engaged, and a brass band will lead the procession through downtown districts.

ORDERS ISSUED FOR FURTHER HOSTILITIES.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. SHANGHAI, Jan. 4.—The Imperial government in Peking sent orders to the Chinese army to continue the attack on the Chinese republic.

paid into silver. Foreign bank notes are no longer current.

Dynamite discovered along the railway lines has been brought to Peking and the discovery gives substance to threats of the revolutionists that they would employ dynamite to drive out the Manchus.

Among the Lanchow troops the disaffected soldiers number not more than 500, it is believed here. Yuan Kai Shih is making preparations in an expectation of the arrival of the republican army and for this purpose is discharging troops to the north.

FAITH FAILS TO SUSTAIN

Insufferable, Cries Mrs. Tingley.

High Priestess of Theosophy Doesn't Like Court; Three Days on Stand.

Led Cautiously by Her Own Lawyer Over Experience With Mrs. Thurston.

Says Aged Woman Wanted to Turn Over Property But She Refused It.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. SAN DIEGO, Jan. 4.—For three days Mrs. Katherine Tingley, head of the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical Society, power supreme in all the workings of that organization with headquarters at Point Loma, has been on the witness stand in the Superior Court here and this afternoon, when court had adjourned, her only complaint was that she did not like the place.

"It is the most insufferable person could imagine," said the well-known theosophist, as she was joined by her attorneys and walked from the courtroom.

Mrs. Tingley had been cross-examined by Senator Leroy A. Wright, her own attorney, slowly and cautiously, he took her over the ground she had traversed in direct examination, when she was called by the contestants who are attempting to break the will of the late Harriet P. Thurston, who died leaving the great bulk of her quarter of a million-dollar estate to Mrs. Tingley and the society of which she is the head.

From the many depositions of Mrs. Thurston, it was learned that she had been in the habit of visiting Mrs. Tingley and that she had been in the habit of visiting Mrs. Tingley and that she had been in the habit of visiting Mrs. Tingley.

EARTHQUAKE OF WIDE RANGE.

THREE DISTINCT SHOCKS ARE FELT IN FRESONO.

Battle, Mont., and Reno, Nev., Experience the Tremor and in the Divided Town Clocks Are Stopped by It—May Have Originated in the Aleutian Archipelago.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. BUTTE (Mont.), Jan. 4.—A severe earthquake was felt this evening at 7:54 o'clock in this city. There were three successive shocks, apparently from north to south, two strong, then a weaker one, a few moments later.

It was accompanied by a high northwest wind.

The cold wave appears to be spreading over all the country. It is more noticeable tonight in the Great Lakes region. Nearly all points in Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakota, Northern Iowa, the Michigan peninsula, Northern Illinois and Northern Indiana report heavy snow tonight.

FOURTEEN BELOW.

Michigan and Wisconsin points are experiencing as low as fourteen below, with Moorhead, Minn., and Duluth also in this class. Only two points in Canada are colder than these, Winnipeg, with thirty below, and Qu'Appelle, with twenty-six below. Montreal, for the first time, reports zero, being in the same class with Concordia, Kan., Davenport, Iowa, and Rapid City, S. D.

That the wintry blasts are penetrating the South is shown by temperatures of six above at Amarillo, Tex.; thirty above at Atlanta, forty above at New Orleans and twenty-six above at Shreveport, La. Tampa, Fla., with sixty-two above, was the warmest spot. Los Angeles seems to have regained its equilibrium and reports fifty above. Spokane, usually warm when the rest of the country shivers, has only four above and heavy snow is reported. Snow is falling in portions of Massachusetts, Michigan and Oregon and Tacoma reports rain.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

Five persons were frozen to death in Kansas, two in Michigan, three in Minnesota and one in Danville, Ill.

Dispatches to Board of Trade men here announce heavy losses of livestock in the West and Southwest, because of the intensely cold weather. Cold and snow are also interfering seriously with railway operation and many smaller places throughout the West and Northwest are running short of food and fuel. Schools were closed at various Kansas points because the buildings could not be heated and trains are being abandoned in Colorado because of snow blockades. Wisconsin reports brilliant rainbow-hued spots on each side of the moon, which, also is unusually brilliant. There also is an immense circle around the moon. Forecasters say this phenomenon is rare and betokens Tex.; thirty above at Atlanta, forty

WINTER'S GRIP TIGHTENS ON THE EASTERN STATES.

With Mercury Below Zero and Persons Freezing to Death, or on Verge of Starvation, There Are Rings Around the Moon That Are Said to Betoken a Long Spell of the Refrigerator Life.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Winter tightened its icy grip upon the country today and predictions are for much colder weather this week. The temperature in Chicago dropped to four below zero tonight and the government forecasters said it would reach ten below by morning. It was accompanied by a high northwest wind.

B LAW DEFINED.

The Property Must Be Designated as Public or Private, According to Law Finding.

ANA, Jan. 4.—The questioning and fencing of guns at a gun club was fought out in the Court case in the trial today by H. L. Cushman, attorney for the Los Angeles Times, and J. W. Thompson, on the pro side; San Joaquin Gun Club attorneys were on the conthat the horse was shot, but that one of them shot a strong, but the defense is proving that the preserve was not properly posted, and it was not properly posted, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

WHY CHARGED.

Under the law, a rider who is charged with a crime within a week ago on a charge of manslaughter, was taken from the County Jail in Los Angeles this afternoon by a posse of Los Angeles Sheriff's men, and charged with manslaughter, which are not to be had in the state. Clifton (Ariz.) Jan. 3.—An effort is in progress between the Gravice county and the large mining corporations which control the greater part of the industry of the locality. These corporations, among them the Arizona Copper, the Phoenix Copper and the Chino Copper companies, have agreed to negotiate with the accountants of the county. In retaliation, they have refused to pay the county taxes. The accountants, in turn, have refused to pay the county taxes. The result is a deadlock. The county is the MARATHON RACE IS THIS TRIAL.

Unusual Celerity in Hall of Records Case.

Court Allots Four Days to Try Alleged Dynamiter.

Ten Jurors Chosen and Long Arguments Taboo.

Judge Willis established a new record yesterday in securing a jury for the trial of an important case, when the veniremen were accepted to try Bert H. Conners, charged with having attempted to place and explode a charge of dynamite in an alley adjacent to the Hall of Records building, while it was in process of construction.

Judge Willis has set aside only four days for the trial, and after the exhibition of speed displayed yesterday it is thought possible that it may be concluded within that limit, although Prosecutor Horton thinks that at least a week will be required.

The judge's method was complicated in the case of J. V. Switzer, president of a corporation dealing in bank and office fixtures. Switzer confessed to a feeling of antagonism to labor unions, because of their interference several times in the handling of his business. Without further argument, the prospective juror was excluded; a long cross-examination being avoided.

During the day the defense exercised eight of its ten peremptory challenges, and the prosecution used five of its which it is entitled. Those "telling before" attorneys LeCompte Davis, H.
H. Appel and J. C. Cooper for the defense were O. D. Thompson, a farmer of Long Beach; P. B. Chase, who conducts a loan and investment business at Hollywood; J. F. Brown, a farmer of Artesia; William I. Griffith, a farmer of Chatsworth; A. H. Shepherd, a merchant of Compton; William C.
Davis, a ranchman of El Molino; O.
C. Carle, a retired livestock raiser of Los Angeles; and Walter H. Jenkins of Santa Monica, who admitted that he knows all about the law, having once been a student of the sciences.

The prosecution found William B.
Gambie, a lumberman of Artesia, and Roscoe Belcher, painter and an ex-patrolman of Los Angeles, undesirable candidates. This leaves two jurors to be selected from the defense having two peremptories and the prosecution three challenges to make from.

WHO'S WHO.

The jurors acceptable to all concerned selected up to the hour of adjournment last night are: Charles Cahoon, barber, Pomona; Varnum
C. Herbert, ranchman, El Molino; W.
H. Boehm, poultryman, Inglewood; E.
C. Coleman, ranchman, Agassippi; E.

The jury was not locked up, but was cautioned by the court to refrain from discussing the case or reading newspaper reports of it.

During the proceedings the panel for Department Eleven was exhausted, and jurors were summoned from Department Seven. Attorney Davis protested that jurors could not be transferred from a department foreign to the case, but Judge Willis ruled against the defense under an act of 1907, which he holds does permit this procedure. The last four veniremen examined were from Department Seven and the two remaining chairs will be filled from the same panel.

THE STATE'S CHARGE.

It is alleged by the state that the defendant placed two sticks of 40 per cent nitroglycerin powder near the new Hall of Records building on September 6, 1910, and that he was arrested on May 23, 1911, while attempting to leave the city for Seattle.

Two other defendants, Maple and Thouder, are held under similar indicements. Horton, electing to try Conners first. The case has been termed a pocket edition of the McNamara trial.

There were several passages between the attorneys, but the court would not book any long delay in the proceedings, which started with marked celerity throughout the first day of the trial.

WANT BONDS FOR SCHOOL.

Venue Board of Education Issues a Manifest Asking the Public to Join Movement.

VENICE, Jan. 4.—The members of the Venice High and grammar school Board of Education have issued a joint appeal to the patrons of the school district to all pull together and vote bonds in order that adequate school facilities may be provided to meet the growing demands of the district.

The recommendation so far as the high school is concerned is for a bond issue of $175,000. The suggestion is that after the bonds are voted the selection of a site be submitted to a vote of the people, after the advertisement for sites shall have brought in tenders.
Both boards recognize the critical need of the district to be the construction of additional grammar grade buildings. For this purpose it is advised that the people authorize bonds to the sum of $75,000, with the understanding that one of the new buildings be located in the back country. No date has been set for the proposed election.

At a meeting held last night the Venice City Club passed resolutions of censure against the City Trustees for having permitted the saloons and liquor selling cafes to keep open after midnight, in order to welcome the arrival of the New Year. The club has been investigating the question of illegal votes cast at the recent municipal and tax election. The conclusion reached was that such votes had been cast and the matter of procedure was passed along to the District Attorney and the grand jury.

AZUSA, Jan. 4.—This year Azusa decided to have several open meetings relative to the betterment of the city to be presided over alternately by the Chamber of Commerce and the Azusa Woman's Club. The second meeting of the series was held last evening, with Mrs. Dr. John E. Hill, president of the Woman's Club, in the chair. Music was furnished by the Azusa Band and the orchestra of the S.M.I. of St. Francis Church.

COUNTY GRAND JURY.

talled statement of expenses has ever been furnished the men who contributed to the defense fund and that these sums have been simply charged to "miscellaneous expenses." Possibly the grand jury probe will show how a portion of the money was spent, outside of heavy retaining fees and rental of offices.

BANK MEN CALLED.

After Russell was allowed to go,
W. H. Lutz, auditor at the First National Bank, where Darrow is understood to have kept an account, was summoned into the grand jury room.
It is believed that the lawyers for the defense kept accounts with several banks and that a number of bank officials will be called to testify as to the existence of such accounts. It may be that there are some checks which will show payments made to Franklin from time to time while he was busy visiting prospective jurors and seeking to learn what their sentiments were toward the defendants.

Another witness was Mrs. Anna Hartenstein, Darrow's private stenographer. She was told to bring copies of the correspondence she sent out of her work had been of a routine character.

Among those to be examined today are Leonard Sheber, a watchman at the Higgins building; Larry Sullivan, said to have been one of the detectives for the McNamee defense; W.
G. Collier, a local labor union man, reported to be close to Darrow; Frank Belcher and Keene Kikpatrick, said to be two of Franklin's deaths; Miss E. A. Kernaghan of San Francisco, formerly Darrow's private stenographer.

GOVERNMENT REITS.

It was quieter in the Federal building yesterday than it has been for several weeks. The temporary breathing space was utilized by the United States District Attorney in going over a lot of documentary evidence that will be used against Twitmore, Johannsen and the others when the trials finally start. The government will prepare its cases with unusual care and be ready to meet all technical objections that will be introduced by the attorneys for the defense. While the accused are scheduled to appear in the courtroom tomorrow, the government contents as defendants, that no delay in the trial is not believed that the plea will be made at that time, as everything possible will be done to delay the investigation. The defendants fear disclosures in the bribery investigation going on under the direction of Asst. Dist. Atty. Ford and also want more time to round up lawyers and expense money.

SAID GOOD-BYE TO THE COLD

Man Who Couldn't Take Plain Cod Liver Oil Swears
by Ozonulsion

"How did you get rid of your cold?"
"Ozonulsion three times a day."
"I had the orthodox dislike of cod liver oil, but found that Ozonulsion tastes as good as any diet mother used to make."
"Nothing fishy about it."
"How the good was done, I can't say."
"It's enough for me that it was done and I can work and sleep in comfort."
"No more rawness in the throat nor tightness across the chest—cough and bronchitis all gone."
"I'm advising all my friends to take Ozonulsion."
"It's good for everybody, from baby to patriarch."

CHEERING UP CRAZES.

An over-indulgence of a red wine and a quantity of a costly champagne landed Alfred Benedetti, a waiter, in the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon. Patrolman McNamara caught him as he was about to throw himself in front of a street car at the northern entrance to the Sunset-boulevard tunnel on the Hollywood line. He was sent to the County Hospital.

NEW PLEA FOR MURDER.

Santa Barbara Man Charged With Killing Offspring With Offer Hand Times as His Escape.

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 4.—Insanity, induced by brooding over his inability to make his meager earnings meet the rapidly increasing cost of living, was the defense outlined today for the attorney of John Reck, the Italian on trial for having murdered his new-born babe by hitting it in the head with an ax, and then burying it alive.

Reck sat stolidly in court today while his lawyers made their opening statement in answer to the District Attorney's bald statement of the crime. He evinced no interest when Dr. Julius Hearst, the first witness, told how he had gone to attend Mrs.
Reck, and was informed that no baby had arrived, and how later he discovered the infant's body buried in a shallow grave scooped out beneath the flooring of a barn.

Sheriff Nat Stewart was called to the stand, and related details of the night of Reck, and his capture next day when he returned home to bid his wife good-bye forever.

Both sides expect to conclude the testimony tomorrow. The case probably will be in the hands of the jury Saturday.

DISPUTE GROWS BITTER.

Accused of Defiling County Records.

County in Quarrel with Corporations.

Warriors Want Dam Site on the Gila River.

Continuation of the Times.

(Ariz.) Jan. 2.—An ugly war is in progress between the Superior of Gila county and the Arizona Copper, the Phoenix Copper and the Phoenix Copper.

These corporations, which have been operating in the county since 1908, have expressed their dissatisfaction with the county's attitude toward them.

In retaliation, they are now suing the county for damages.

A. Sanders, an expert accountant, is now investigating the county's books.

He has now reported that the county is in a state of financial chaos.

A RECORD-BREAKING Tailoring Special!

Perfect Fit Guaranteed

I BELIEVE I can say without the slightest fear of exaggeration that this is a tailoring offer that simply sweeps competition off the boards. I want the men of this city to look over this proposition carefully. I want them to read every word of my offer. There have been a great many tailoring sales in this city, and a great many different kinds of tailoring sales, but never before one of this character—never before such a wealth of high-grade imported woollens offered to the general public at such a price. Tomorrow, Saturday, I make the following proposition to the men of Los Angeles:

$45, $40, $35 Suitings
Made-to-Measure
ONE DAY ONLY—TOMORROW
$17.50

You wouldn't expect to buy a good ready-made suit for less than $17.50, would you? By taking advantage of my record-breaking special you can have one BUILT to your individual measure for just that price.

I have in stock at the present time a selection of woollens that is superior to anything ever before shown in Southern California. Elegant Rough Cheviots, Tweeds, Homespuns, Herringbones, Serges, Worsteds, etc. Not a piece of woolen in the house cost me less than $4 a yard.

Personal attention is the keynote of my tailoring success. My work stands supreme among the men who wear the best. Not a suit is allowed to leave my shop until the man who is to wear it is delighted with it in every respect.

SALT LAKE WILL SEND OUT AN INDUSTRIAL TRAIN.

Will Leave Salt Lake City Today and Will Visit Many Towns in Utah and Nevada—Instructors from University of Nevada and Utah Agricultural College.

The Salt Lake Railroad will send a special industrial and educational train to points in Utah and Nevada from Salt Lake City today. The train will consist of a composite, buffet sleeping car, a baggage stock car and a baggage exhibition car and one coach fitted for stereoscopic lectures.

The points to be visited include Sandy, Draper, Lehi, American Fork, Pleasant Grove, Provo, Spanish Fork, Payson, Santaquin, Mona, Nephi, Lyndy, Delta, Oquirrh, Milford, Modoc, Las Vegas, Moapa, Lund, Tropic and Tooele.

Prof. Lewis A. Merrill, director of extension work and dry farming experiments, Salt Lake City; Prof. Gordon H. True, professor agriculture and animal husbandry, University of Nevada, Reno; Prof. J. C. Hoggan, soil and field crops, extension division, Utah Agricultural College; Prof. J. T. Cain, live stock, extension division, Utah Agricultural College; Mrs. Hazel Love Dufford, home economics, extension division, Utah Agricultural College; Miss Leah Irwin, home economics, extension division, Utah Agricultural College; E. W. Bowling, in charge of stereoscopic views and demonstration, extension division, Utah Agricultural College; Gottlieb Smith, in charge of live stock car; J. H. Mansfield, assistant general freight and passenger agent, Salt Lake; Douglas White, industrial agent, Salt Lake route.

NOT IN THE MERGER. BIG COMPANY OUTSIDE.

The Pacific Navigation Company will not be consolidated with any other company, said Capt. H. W. Goodall yesterday. "The Yale and Harvard will continue operating between San Francisco and San Diego, exchanging traffic with the boats of the Alaska-Pacific Company at San Francisco. The Times has correctly stated the situation in including the Alaska-Pacific, North Pacific and Alaska Coast companies in the merger, and in not including the Pacific Navigation Company."

NOT IN THE MERGER. BIG COMPANY OUTSIDE.

The three companies that are to be merged are practically controlled by the same interests, and the only change in operation affecting the port of Los Angeles, as stated in The Times yesterday, is that the North Pacific Company will discontinue operation south of San Francisco, which business will be cared for by the Pacific Navigation Company by virtue of the traffic agreement with the Alaska-Pacific Company.

"Spoons" Photographed.

The Santa Fe Railroad has credit for a unique feature in advertising. The company has its affections centered on the new de luxe train operating between Chicago and Los Angeles. In looking out for a way to adequately exploit its attractions it hit upon a novel idea. A vitagraph company playing "hot" here was engaged and assumed the role of passenger in the train. Between Los Angeles and San Bernardino a series of moving pictures were taken.

The actor-passengers were photographed at the rate of a mile a minute. Pictures were taken in the parlor cars, the dining car and even the passenger sleeping in the dining car. Men were photographed in the train's barber shop, women were snapped in the dressing-room. A stereoscopic couple played an important part in the pictures of one of the cozy corners.

Make Any Under Fire.

The express companies are in a controversy with the State Board of Railroad Commissioners over the provisions of the long and short haul clause. Under this clause the carriers are not allowed to charge more for a shorter than a longer distance without approval of the commission.

The commission is now considering express company rates, and yesterday in San Francisco the express companies were given time to file the schedule of rates under the threat that all irregular rates will be cancelled unless the information is promptly forthcoming. Representatives of the express companies promised speedy compliance with the request.

Another Railroad Transfer.

Coinciding with the taking-over of the line between Mexico and Nogales recently purchased from the Southern Pacific by the Santa Fe, the latter company parted with the Sonora Railroad and the New Mexico and Arizona to the Southern Pacific. The line taken over by the Santa Fe and the one transferred to the Southern Pacific are about the same length. The deal was more or less formal as it involves lines already practically exchanged under 1907 leases.

New Steamers Chartered.

According to information received here yesterday the Hapag-American Steamship Company has placed a contract with a Belfast shipbuilder for a passenger steamer for the New York service of $2,500,000 gross register. It will be 740 feet long, eighty-six feet wide and forty-eight feet deep, and will carry 3000 passengers. The same company is building two high-class freight steamers of 10,000 tons each.

TRIOBLE FOR GREAT BRITAIN.

Might Result From French Ownership of Important Islands at the Mouth of the St. Lawrence River.

Baltimore (American). Although every one is aware that the great island of Anticosti at the mouth of the St. Lawrence River, belongs to a French citizen, Henri Manier, but few know that another important island, or rather group of islands, known as the Magdalen archipelago, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, are likewise in French hands. Although they were originally granted as a free gift by King George III, in 1793 to Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin, at the request of the latter's friend, Lord Dorchester, in recognition of his services in defeating the French in numerous battles at sea, yet the head of the Coffin family, which still owns the archipelago, is a French citizen, like his father and his grandfather before him, a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, and makes his home partly in Paris and partly at his chateau in the Morbihan.

His authority is represented on the islands by a resident agent, whose name is M. Fontaine. The population numbers 6000, of whom about 95 per cent are French-Canadians or settlers of French origin, and the remainder are in much the same way; that is to say, either by Canadian-French, or else by fellow citizens of the owner, Henri Manier.

Of course both Henri Manier and the similarly French owner of the Magdalen archipelago hold these islands subject to the sovereignty of the British crown and are amenable to the jurisdiction of the Canadian dominion. But in the event of any rupture of the entente cordiale between Great Britain and France that would prevent the islands becoming a source of considerable trouble, if not absolute danger, to Great Britain.

The Magdalen were first discovered in 1534 by Jacques Cartier. In 1603 the company of the French granted them to Sieur Doublet, a shipowner of Honfleur, who named them the Magdalen in honor of his wife. In 1713 the French king ceded them to the Comte de St. Pierre at the instance of the Duchesse d'Orleans, and the first people to reside there permanently were some Acadian families, who came from St. Peter's bay, Prince Edward's island, in 1717, and found employment under a retired English officer of the name of Ordeley, who opened an establishment to trade in walrus and seal oil. In 1782 Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin espied them and thinking it would be very nice to own a Canadian archipelago obtained a grant thereof from King George, through his friend Lord Dorchester.

Use of "Papa" Declining. (London Chronicle.) The use of "papa" in this country illustrates the slow and ebb of fashion in words, as in costume, pretty clearly. All authorities agree that "papa" and "mamma" arrived here from France in the sixteenth century. At first they were courtly expressions, and were used by "persons of fashion," adults as well as children, in the eighteenth century. But with the nineteenth the middle classes took them up, originally regarding them as genteel; in our time one of the faults of the hero of "E. dunno" were "a're" after coming into "a little bit o' school," was that he "ad the cheek and impudence to call 'is mother 'is ma." The usual result followed. Everybody's words adopted as genteel became vulgar, and now "papa" and "mamma" are dying out even among children.

Alleviated His Grief. (Philadelphia Times.) Edgar M. Church, the famous football veteran of Philadelphia, was talking at Franklin Field about football's charms. "When I was playing in '91's class game," said he, "there was a '91 chap who lost a dear relative. The fellow took place the day we played '92, and at the game's end as I was crossing over to the college, the funeral procession glided slowly past. 'All of a sudden a head was thrust out of one of the mourning coaches and a voice said: 'Have we kicked 'em, Church?' 'Yes,' said I. 'Hurrah!' shouted my classmate, and drew in his head again and drove on sorrowing."
